History:

R/Sgt. Assigned by OEMC to a request supervisor at pon arrival R/Sgt. was met by both complainant and his wife. R/Sgt. was informed through (wife) of the incident. Complainant stated that he was stopped a by the above accused, complainant identifies as a Chicago Police Officer, Complainant was searched and his wallet was taken from his back pocket. Victim noticed that the officer placed the wallet on the front seat of the complainants van. The complainant was placed in the back of the police vehicle and the officer went back and searched the van. Upon returning to the victim the accused released him from the back seat and told him he couldn't drive. Complainant called his sister-in-law who came and drove him home. Complainant checked his wallet upon returning home and found that only $80 was left of the $380 he had before he was stopped by the accused. Complainant informed R/Sgt that the police vehicle had red and blue lights. No further info given.
